

Leadership, Self-development and Education

Learning track 16

Saturday, June 4, 2022

P

Panel Discussion

16P1 How to succeed in the EDAIC

Session organised by the ESAIC Trainee Network

11:00 – 12:00

Trainee Network

Chair: Bazil Ateleanu (Cardiff, United Kingdom)

How to best prepare for the EDAIC Part I

Speaker: Anastasios Antonogiannakis (Athens, Greece)

How to best prepare for the EDAIC Part II

Speaker: Zeev Goldik (Haifa, Israel)

Do's and don'ts - The most common causes of failure at the exam

Speaker: Liana Valeanu (Bucharest, Romania)

Discussion

LT

Lightning Talk

16LT1 Gender bias in anaesthesiology - where do we stand?

Session organised by the ESAIC Gender Equity Committee

11:00 – 12:00

Chair: Vojislava Neskovic (Belgrade, Serbia)

Gender diversity, equity and inclusion: what does it mean for us?

Speaker: Cynthia Wong (Iowa City, United States)

Gender parity in anaesthesiology research: how far off are we from the target?

Speaker: Alessandro De Cassai (Padova, Italy)

Strategies for improving gender equity in clinical workplace, research and leadership opportunities

Speaker: Marko Zdravkovic (Maribor, Slovenia)

Speaker: Joana Berger-Estilita (Zurich, Switzerland)

Let's be honest: gender bias in ESAIC - no way!

Speaker: Vojislava Neskovic (Belgrade, Serbia)

The bias free environment: reward ability or what?

Speaker: Daniela Filipescu (Bucharest, Romania)

Discussion

P

Panel Discussion

16P2 A matter of conscience: ethical dilemmas in the obstetric management of Jehovah's Witnesses

14:00 – 15:00

Chair: Ornella Piazza (Baronissi, Italy)

A patient's perspective - Understanding religion, faith and modern medicine

Speaker: Giuseppe Amendola (Roma, Italy)

A bioethicist's perspective - What are the ethical issues (or are we just uncomfortable with different choices)?

Speaker: Robert Klitzman (New York, United States)

A lawyer's perspective - Laws, rights and conscience

Speaker: Mary Neal (Glasgow, United Kingdom)

A clinician's perspective - Don't just sit there, do nothing?

Speaker: Caitlin Sutton (Houston, United States)

Discussion

Sunday, June 5, 2022

S

Panel Discussion

16P3 Outsourcing ethics: is there a place and role for clinical ethics committees?

09:30 – 10:30

Chair: Vladimir Cerny (Ústí Nad Labem, Czech Republic)

Outsourcing ethics - A bioethicist's perspective

Speaker: Robert Klitzman (New York, United States)

Outsourcing ethics - A legal perspective

Speaker: Rhona Das Siegmeth (Glasgow, United Kingdom)

Outsourcing ethics - a clinician's perspective

Speaker: Lucio Romano (Naples, Italy)

Outsourcing ethics - An organisational and management perspective

Speaker: Maria Wittmann (Bonn, Germany)

Discussion

S

Symposium

16S1 Women's health beyond maternal care

Session organised by the ESAIC Gender Equity Committee

11:00 – 12:00

Chair: Vojislava Neskovic (Belgrade, Serbia)

Healthcare gender inequities and outcomes

Speaker: Sheila Nainan Myatra (Mumbai, India)

Intensive care medicine: does the gender matter?

Speaker: Francesca Rubulotta (London, United Kingdom)

Gender in research: is it just a covariate?

Speaker: Honorato Cristina (Pamplona, Spain)

Discussion

P

Panel Discussion

16P4 Dealing with a colleague in difficulty

15:15 – 16:15

Chair: Ellen P. O'Sullivan (Dublin, Ireland)

How can a department best support a critically or terminally ill colleague?

Speaker: Pamela Flood (Stanford, United States)

How can a department best support a colleague with addiction?

Speaker: Clare Gerada (London, United Kingdom)

How to deal with badly behaving doctors?

Speaker: Rhona Das Siegmeth (Glasgow, United Kingdom)

Discussion

S

Symposium

16S2 The Four Principles under fire: ethics for the sceptical and confused

17:00 – 18:00

Chair: Ornella Piazza (Baronissi, Italy)

Who decides where the balance between beneficence and non-maleficence lies?

Speaker: Sonya Daniel (Cardiff, United Kingdom)

Can full autonomy ever exist in a truly just system? - pre-recorded

Speaker: Jonathan Wolff (Oxford, United Kingdom)

Are there ethical alternatives to the 4 principles?

Speaker: Paul McConnell (Paisley, United Kingdom)

Discussion

Monday, June 6, 2022

S

Symposium

16S3 "Stay in your lane!" The role of medical professionals in addressing wider ethical issues

11:00 – 12:00

Chair: Paul McConnell (Paisley, United Kingdom)

Environmentalism and Green Anaesthesia

Speaker: Susanne Koch (Berlin, Germany)

Medical research, animal rights and speciesism

Speaker: Ornella Piazza (Baronissi, Italy)

Speaking truth to power

Speaker: Robert Klitzman (New York, United States)

Discussion

P

Panel Discussion

16P5 Mission (im)possible: residency challenges

Session organised by the ESAIC Trainee Network in collaboration with the EBA workforce

14:00 – 15:00

Chair: Igor Abramovich (Berlin, Germany)

Trainee Network

Once advice to share: making yourself understood

Speaker: Idit Matot (Tel Aviv, Israel)

Anaesthesiology training and parenthood: how to combine the seemingly impossible?

Speaker: Elena Gjorchevska (Skopje, North Macedonia)

Fatigue and its impact on our performance

Speaker: Nancy Redfern (Newcastle upon Tyne, United Kingdom)

Discussion

S

Symposium

16S4 ESAIC Trainees Committee and National Trainee Sections

Session organised by the ESAIC Trainee Network

15:30 – 16:30

Chair: Albert de Bettignies (Wien, Austria)

Trainee Network

The local National Trainee Representatives' (NTR) perspective

Speaker: Natalie Krug (Leipzig, Germany)

Creation and actual relevance of the Belgian Trainee Section

Speaker: Anaïs Pesonen (Leuven, Belgium)

International Trainees' perspective: NEXT ESICM

Speaker: Silvia De Rosa (Vicenza, Italy)

Discussion